Early Life and Background

Childhood and Family Roots

Vivien Leigh was born Vivian Mary Hartley on November 5, 1913, in Darjeeling, India, where her father, Ernest Hartley, was a British civil servant stationed in the British Raj. Her mother, Gertrude, was a former actress who fostered her daughter's early interest in the performing arts.

The Leigh family's roots were deeply British, with a lineage that emphasized social standing and cultural refinement. She was a bright student, passionate about literature and the arts, but also known for her emotional sensitivity—a trait that would later influence her acting style.

During her formative years, Leigh was immersed in the cultural life of London, attending theatre performances and engaging with artistic circles. Her exposure to the arts laid the foundation for her future career, inspiring her to pursue acting professionally.
