This biblical expression emphasizes that true reverence and devotion are inherently beautiful when rooted in holiness—a divine attribute that combines moral purity, spiritual excellence, and aesthetic splendor. In Wesleyan thought, holiness is not merely a moral state but a comprehensive life transformed by divine grace, reflecting God's own beauty. In art, this concept manifests as visual and symbolic representations that aim to evoke reverence, awe, and a sense of the divine presence. Artistic expressions commissioned or inspired by biblical themes often strive to depict the nobility and majesty of God's holiness, encouraging viewers to contemplate divine perfection and their own calling to holiness. Key aspects include:

- Artistic representations that aim to embody divine qualities
- The integration of biblical text and visual art in worship and devotion

- Entire Sanctification: The process of being made holy entirely through divine grace
- Imitation of Christ: Holiness as reflecting Christ's character
- Holiness as Beauty: Recognizing divine beauty as reflected in moral and spiritual virtues

This theological perspective influences how holiness is perceived—not merely as an abstract virtue but as a radiant, living reality that can be expressed through art and worship. Wesley's emphasis on heartfelt piety and social holiness encourages believers and artists to depict and pursue the beauty of a life transformed by divine love.
