Background of the Civil Rights Movement

The Roots of Racial Inequality in America

The Civil Rights Movement was born out of centuries of racial injustice, segregation, and systemic discrimination against African Americans. These laws marginalized Black communities, denying them equal access to education, employment, housing, and voting rights.

The Rise of Civil Rights Advocacy

Throughout the early 20th century, African American leaders and organizations began advocating for civil rights through protests, legal challenges, and grassroots activism. Notable figures such as W.E.B. Du Bois, Booker T. Washington, and later, Martin Luther King Jr., contributed to shaping the movement's goals and strategies. The 1950s and early 1960s saw a surge in pivotal events, including the Montgomery Bus Boycott (1955-1956), Brown v. Board of Education (1954), and sit-in protests against segregated facilities.
