The Origins and Evolution of State of the Union TV Tie-Ins

Historical Context

The tradition of the State of the Union address dates back to the early 19th century, with President Thomas Jefferson's initial use of the speech as a written report to Congress. Over time, the address evolved into a televised spectacle, especially after the advent of television as a mass communication tool. The first televised SOTU was in 1947, marking the beginning of a new era where visual media could amplify political messaging.

Rise of Televised Campaign Tie-Ins

As television became a dominant medium, campaigns recognized the potential of aligning their messaging with the SOTU. The concept of a "tie-in" emerged as campaigns sought to extend the reach of the speech beyond its immediate audience, capitalizing on the event's national prominence. These tie-ins include:

- Pre-speech advertising campaigns
