The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR): An Overview

What is the CEFR?

Developed by the Council of Europe, the CEFR is a descriptive framework that categorizes language proficiency into six levels: A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2. These levels describe what learners can do in the language at each stage, regardless of the specific language or context.

Key features of the CEFR include:

1. Descriptive approach: Focuses on abilities rather than just knowledge.
2. Descriptors: Clear statements about skills across listening, speaking, reading, and writing.
3. Guidelines for curriculum design: Supports the development of courses aligned with learner needs.
4. Assessment standards: Provides benchmarks for evaluating proficiency.

Why is the CEFR important?

The CEFR ensures that language learning is transparent and comparable across different countries and institutions. It facilitates mobility, recognition of qualifications, and more tailored instruction by providing a common reference point.
