The Genesis of the Prada Foundation LINGU

Origins and Conceptual Framework

The Prada Foundation, established in 1995 by Miuccia Prada and Patrizio Bertelli, has long been committed to fostering contemporary art and culture. However, the unveiling of LINGU signifies a strategic evolution, emphasizing a new architectural language that encapsulates innovation, sustainability, and cultural dialogue.

Rem Koolhaas was commissioned to design this flagship project in Milan, Italy, a city steeped in history yet continually embracing modernity. The project emerged from a desire to create a space that not only showcases art but also acts as a catalyst for community engagement and intellectual exchange. The name "LINGU" is derived from the Italian word "linguaggio," meaning "language," symbolizing the project's core aim: to serve as a new language in cultural architecture.

Strategic Goals

Digital access supports diverse learning styles. Some readers prefer structured, linear reading, while others focus on specific sections or revisit content selectively. Digital formats accommodate both approaches. Readers can skim, search, annotate, or study deeply depending on their goals and preferences.

Accessibility features further expand the reach of digital books. Adjustable font sizes, screen reader compatibility, night modes, and text-to-speech functions help ensure that Rem Koolhaas Unveiling The Prada Foundation Lingu remains usable for readers with different needs. Inclusive design makes knowledge more equitable and widely available.
