Historical Background and Origins

Founding and Early History

The Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus was officially established in 1959, but its roots trace back to earlier missionary efforts and evangelical movements in Ethiopia. The church's name, "Mekane Yesus," translates to "House of Jesus" in Amharic, reflecting its core mission of proclaiming Christ's salvation. The church emerged from the efforts of German and Scandinavian missionaries who arrived in Ethiopia during the early 20th century, particularly from the Evangelical Church in Germany and the Scandinavian Mission. These missionaries sought to evangelize the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo Church's followers and to establish indigenous Protestant churches that could operate independently. The formal founding of the church was marked by the establishment of the first evangelical congregations in the southern regions of Ethiopia, particularly among the Gurage, Sidama, and Wolayta peoples. Over time, these local communities embraced the evangelical message, leading to the expansion and formal organization of the church.

Growth and Expansion

Throughout the 1960s and 1970s, the EECMY experienced significant growth, driven by indigenous leadership and community engagement. Despite political upheavals, including the Ethiopian Revolution of 1974 and subsequent regimes, the church persisted in its mission, often serving as a source of social stability and spiritual support. By the late 20th century, the church had established a strong presence across multiple regions, with thousands of congregations and a growing membership base.
