1. Part I: General Principles and Definitions (Sections 1-6)
2. Part II: Suit and Parties (Sections 7-35)
3. Part III: Institution of Suit (Sections 36-50)

Additional Rules and Schedules

Besides the main sections, the CPC includes rules of procedure, forms, and schedules that provide detailed instructions for specific processes, such as affidavits, pleadings, and appeals.

Fundamental Principles of Civil Procedure

Justice, Equity, and Good Conscience

The CPC is founded on the principles of justice, equity, and good conscience, ensuring fair treatment for all parties involved.

Adversarial System

It adopts an adversarial system where parties present their case before an impartial court, which decides based on the evidence and legal arguments.

Principle of Fair Notice

Parties must be given adequate notice of legal proceedings affecting their rights, ensuring transparency and fairness.

Expedition of Justice

The procedural rules aim to facilitate swift resolution of disputes, minimizing delays and unnecessary procedures.

Key Concepts and Procedures Under the CPC

Filing a Suit

The process begins with the plaintiff filing a plaint, which must contain:

1. Statement of facts constituting the cause of action
2. Relief sought
3. Jurisdiction of the court
4. Verification and signature

Summons and Service

Once a suit is filed, the court issues summons to the defendant, informing them of the suit and requiring their appearance. Service of summons can be done through various means, including personal delivery, mail, or publication.

Pleadings

Pleadings are written statements submitted by parties to define the issues:

1. Plaint: The initial complaint by the plaintiff.
2. Written Statement: The defendant's reply to the plaint.
3. Rejoinder: The plaintiff's response to the defendant's written statement.

Discovery and Inspection

Parties can request the production of documents relevant to the case, facilitating transparency and fact-finding.

Trial Procedure

The trial involves examination of witnesses, presentation of evidence, and legal arguments. The court assesses the evidence to determine the facts.

Judgment and Decree

After considering the evidence and arguments, the court delivers a judgment, which is formalized as a decree. The decree may be preliminary or final.

Appeals and Revisions

Parties dissatisfied with the judgment may file appeals or revisions according to the provisions of the CPC, ensuring the review of judicial decisions.

Execution of Decrees

Once a decree becomes final, it must be executed to satisfy the rights of the parties. This involves methods like attachment, sale of property, or garnishment.

Important Amendments and Reforms

Recent Reforms

The CPC has seen reforms aimed at reducing delays and improving efficiency:
