world issues of racial profiling?" - Analyzing: "What are the different perspectives of the characters involved in the case?" - Evaluating: "Do you believe the court's decision was fair? Why or why not?" - Creating:

"Imagine you are a lawyer defending Steve. What arguments would you make?" By mixing question types, teachers can challenge students at multiple levels, ensuring comprehensive engagement. Incorporating

Textual Evidence Questions that require students to cite specific passages promote close reading. For example, "Find a quote that reveals Steve's inner conflict and explain its significance." This approach enhances comprehension and analytical precision. Connecting to Broader
