Historical Background and Setting

The Forbidden City, or Zi Jin Cheng, served as the imperial palace from the early 15th century until the early 20th century. It was not merely a residence but a symbol of imperial authority, a microcosm of Chinese political and cultural life. Women within this domain, especially those of noble or royal descent, often led secluded lives, yet their experiences were rich with political intrigue, cultural refinement, and personal sacrifice. The memoir is set against this backdrop, capturing a period marked by internal court politics, external threats, cultural shifts, and the complex social hierarchy that dictated every aspect of life within the walls.

Authorship and Perspective
