Charles Bukowski (1920–1994) was an American writer whose career spanned over four decades. Born in Andernach, Germany, and raised in Los Angeles, his work is often characterized as autobiographical, blending personal experience with stark realism and black humor. Bukowski is frequently associated with the Beat Generation, although he often distanced himself from that label, preferring to carve his own niche as a poet of the proletariat.

His writing style is notable for its simplicity, directness, and rhythm, often employing free verse and colloquial language that makes his work accessible yet profoundly impactful. Bukowski's voice is unpretentious, unapologetic, and fiercely individualistic—a product of his tumultuous life and relentless pursuit of authenticity.

Adjusting screen brightness to match ambient lighting further enhances comfort and protects eye health during long reading sessions.

Creating a focused reading environment

A distraction-free environment improves reading efficiency and enjoyment. When reading Charles Bukowski Once, try to minimize notifications from messaging apps or social media.
