The Mysteries Condor series traces its origins to the classic detective and espionage narratives of the 20th century. Inspired by legendary figures such as Sherlock Holmes, Hercule Poirot, and James Bond, the series introduces a modern, international flavor to the traditional mystery genre. The original works were published in Chinese, reflecting East Asian storytelling sensibilities, but gained widespread recognition with their translation into English. The series was initially conceived by renowned Chinese author Wang Li (pseudonym), who sought to craft stories that blended traditional Chinese cultural elements with contemporary detective tropes. The first book, The Shadow of the Jade Falcon, was published in 2005 and set the tone for a series that would explore complex international conspiracies, cultural conflicts, and intricate puzzles.

Transition to the English Edition

The transition from Chinese publication to the English edition began around 2010, driven by a surge of international interest in Asian crime fiction. Publishers recognized the potential for these stories to introduce Western audiences to a different narrative style—one that combines Eastern philosophy, historical depth, and modern suspense. The English editions are meticulously translated by Sarah Carter, a seasoned linguist and mystery enthusiast, ensuring that the nuance, tone, and cultural references are preserved.
