Originally, the board was comprised of elected officials with broad powers, but over time, reforms have introduced more structured governance models emphasizing transparency and accountability.

Composition and Membership

The board currently consists of nine elected members, each serving four-year terms. These members are elected at-large by residents of Milwaukee, ensuring that representation is distributed across the city's diverse neighborhoods. The election process is competitive, with candidates often campaigning on platforms focused on education reform, resource allocation, and community engagement. Key aspects of the board's composition include:

Periodic review sessions strengthen memory retention and help identify areas that may need further clarification. Digital highlights remain accessible and searchable, making review sessions more efficient than flipping through physical pages.
