Literary Analysis: Style, Narrative Techniques, and Characterization

Writing Style

Singh's prose in Like It Happened Yesterday remains accessible yet layered. His straightforward language facilitates emotional immediacy, while subtle poetic touches enhance the narrative's depth. Singh employs a balanced mix of dialogue, introspection, and descriptive passages, allowing readers to immerse themselves fully in Aman's psychological landscape. Notably, Singh's use of non-linear storytelling through flashbacks adds a layer of suspense, compelling readers to piece together the timeline and motives. This layered approach heightens the emotional stakes and encourages active reader participation in uncovering the truth.

Characterization

Singh's characters are nuanced, with internal conflicts and moral ambiguities. Aman is depicted as a flawed yet sympathetic protagonist, whose vulnerability makes him relatable. Neha, though absent for much of the story, is fleshed out through memories and revelations, embodying themes of love's complexity. Supporting characters—family members, friends, and acquaintances—serve to reflect various facets of human nature, from loyalty and betrayal to hope and despair.
