The Origins of "Come From Away"

The Birth of a Musical

"Come From Away" is a contemporary musical that debuted in 2013, conceived by Canadian creators Irene Sankoff and David Hein. The duo was inspired by a series of interviews conducted with residents of Gander, Newfoundland, following September 11, 2001. Their goal was to tell a story of kindness and unity amid tragedy, capturing the human side of a national crisis in a small town that opened its arms to thousands of stranded airline passengers.

Inspiration from True Events

On September 11, 2001, the United States faced unprecedented terrorist attacks, leading to a complete grounding of all commercial flights. The local community's response was swift and compassionate. They provided food, shelter, and comfort to strangers, embodying a spirit of generosity that defied the chaos of the day.
