relevant information efficiently. Types of Passages: - Narrative texts: Stories, anecdotes, or historical accounts that focus on storytelling elements. - Expository texts: Informative articles, essays, or reports that explain concepts or processes. - Persuasive texts: Editorials or opinion pieces aiming to convince or influence the reader. - Literary texts: Poems, dialogues, or excerpts from novels that require interpretive skills. - Integration of critical reading and analysis skills into curricula.
- Use of data from comprehension tests to inform instructional strategies.

Methods and Strategies for Approaching Reading Passage Questions

- Active reading: Annotating, highlighting key points, or jotting down notes.
- Question-driven reading: Keeping questions in mind to focus on relevant information.
- Context clues utilization: Using surrounding words to infer meanings of unfamiliar vocabulary.

Answering Techniques

Once the passage is read, approaching questions systematically enhances accuracy: - Restate the question: Clarify what is being asked before searching for the answer. - Locate evidence: Return to the relevant part of the passage to find supporting information. - Eliminate distractors: Discard answer choices that are clearly incorrect or not supported by the text. - Beware of absolutes: Words like “always,” “never,” or “only” often indicate extreme options that are less likely correct unless explicitly supported.

Common Pitfalls and How to Avoid Them
