Early Life and Formative Years: Foundations of a Leader

Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela was born on July 18, 1918, in the small village of Mvezo in the Eastern Cape province of South Africa. His early years were shaped by the traditions and struggles of his Xhosa community, as well as the tumultuous socio-political landscape of apartheid-era South Africa. Mandela's father, a local chief, and his mother instilled in him values of leadership and community service.

In his youth, Mandela attended Clarkebury Boarding School and later Healdtown, a Methodist college, where he was exposed to ideas of equality and justice. His academic journey continued at the University of Fort Hare, a hub of political activism, although he was expelled for participating in student protests.
