The colors red, white, and blue are among the most iconic in the world, prominently featured in numerous national flags, notably those of the United States, France, the United Kingdom, and several other nations. Their origins are rooted in history, political movements, and philosophical ideas that shaped nation-states.

- United States: The red, white, and blue of the American flag symbolize bravery (red), purity and innocence (white), and vigilance or justice (blue). These colors were inspired by the British Union Jack and the ideals of the American Revolution. The design was finalized in 1777, reflecting the colonists' desire for independence and unity.
