1. Non-Verbal Attending Behaviors

Non-verbal cues are the cornerstone of attending skills. They include body language, facial expressions, eye contact, and gestures that convey attention and interest.

- Open-Ended Questions: Asking questions that require more than yes/no responses fosters deeper dialogue, such as "Can you tell me more about that?"

3. Attentive Listening Techniques

Active listening involves more than hearing words; it requires fully focusing on the speaker, processing information, and responding appropriately.

- Avoiding Distractions: Turning off devices and minimizing interruptions show respect and interest.
