The band was initially assembled by pianist and bandleader Anna Mae Winburn, who recognized the need for a female ensemble capable of competing with male jazz bands prevalent during that era. The original lineup included talented musicians from diverse backgrounds, all sharing a passion for jazz and a desire to challenge societal norms.

Influences and Inspirations

The band drew inspiration from the big band era's leading figures such as Duke Ellington and Count Basie, but they distinguished themselves through their all-female composition and energetic performances.
