How Do I Find My Tax File Number? Step-by-Step Guide

Locating your TFN involves understanding the various sources where it might be stored or recorded. Here's an in-depth look at the methods available to you.

1. Check Your Official Documentation

The first step in your search should be to examine any official correspondence or documents you've received from the ATO or related financial institutions. Common documents containing your TFN include:

- Tax Return Notices of Assessment: After lodging your tax return, the ATO provides a Notice of Assessment that includes your TFN.
- PAYG Payment Summaries or Payment Summaries: Employers often include your TFN on these summaries.
- Superannuation Statements: Your super fund statements may display your TFN.
- Annual Tax Statements from Financial Institutions: Banks, investment firms, or other financial entities may include your TFN in their annual summaries.
- Previous ATO Correspondence: Any letters or notices from the ATO may mention your TFN.
- Superannuation Fund Communications: Statements or correspondence from your super fund often contain your TFN.

Tip: Always store these documents in a safe, accessible location for future reference—digital copies can be stored securely in cloud services, while physical copies should be kept in a dedicated file or safe.

2. Access Your MyGov Account

The Australian government's MyGov portal is a centralized platform that links to various government services, including the ATO. If you have an active MyGov account linked to the ATO, retrieving your TFN is straightforward. Setting up a MyGov account is free and straightforward, but it requires verifying your identity.

3. Contact the Australian Taxation Office Directly

If you are unable to locate your TFN through your documents or online accounts, contacting the ATO directly is an effective fallback. How to contact the ATO: - Phone: Call the ATO’s individual inquiries line at 13 28 61 (from within Australia). Be prepared to verify your identity through questions related to your personal details, previous tax lodgements, or superannuation accounts. - In Person: Visit your local ATO shopfront or service center with appropriate identification. - Online Contact: Use the ATO’s secure messaging service via your myGov account if linked, or submit an enquiry through their online contact forms.

Important: Due to privacy and security measures, the ATO will only disclose your TFN after verifying your identity. This process may involve confirming details such as your full name, date of birth, address, and other identifiers.

4. Review Your Financial and Employment Records

Employers, payroll providers, and financial institutions typically retain records of your TFN, especially if they've issued you PAYG summaries or tax statements. Sources include:

- Payslips: Some employers include your TFN on your pay slips.

What To Do If You Can't Find Your TFN

Sometimes, despite efforts, you may still be unable to find your TFN. In such cases, it's important to understand the steps to take to avoid delays or penalties.

1. Lodge a “Notice of Assessment” Request

If you’ve previously lodged a tax return, your TFN should be on your Notice of Assessment. If you’ve lost this document, contact the ATO to request a copy.

2. Complete a TFN Declaration Form

If you’re starting a new job and don’t know your TFN, you can complete a Tax File Number Declaration form and submit it to your employer. The employer will then contact the ATO on your behalf to verify and retrieve your TFN.

- Visiting an ATO shopfront or service center.
- Providing proof of identity (such as your birth certificate, passport, or driver’s license).
