Historical Background

The roots of French Romanticism can be traced back to the socio-political upheavals of the late 18th century, particularly the French Revolution (1789). The revolution challenged traditional authority, ushering in ideals of liberty, equality, and fraternity. These ideals fostered a climate of intellectual freedom that encouraged expressive experimentation in both literature and arts.

Reaction Against Classicism

Romanticism arose as a reaction against the strict rules and rationalism of Neoclassicism. While classicism valued order, symmetry, and adherence to classical themes, Romanticism emphasized emotion, individual experience, and the sublime. This shift allowed artists and writers to explore more personal, emotional, and often rebellious themes.
