Historical Context and Evolution of Women in the Humanities

Early Barriers and Pioneering Figures

Women's participation in the humanities has been fraught with systemic obstacles. Up until the 19th and early 20th centuries, societal norms often excluded women from higher education and scholarly pursuits. Nevertheless, a few trailblazing women defied these barriers: - Hildegard von Bingen (1098–1179): A medieval abbess whose writings on theology, medicine, and natural history remain influential. - Laura Bassi (1711–1778): One of the first women to earn a university doctorate in physics and philosophy in Bologna. - Hanna Arendt (1906–1975): A renowned political theorist whose works continue to shape understanding of totalitarianism and authority.
