The Etymology of "Bated"

The phrase "with bated breath" dates back several centuries, with roots in Middle English. The word "bated" is derived from the verb "bate," which means to diminish, reduce, or restrain. Over time, "bate" became associated with holding back or suppressing, specifically in the context of breathing or speech. Historically, "bate" was used in phrases like "bated breath" to describe a person who is holding their breath in anticipation or fear. The phrase was likely influenced by the idea of holding one's breath to stay silent or remain still, especially in tense moments.

The Transition from "Bate" to "Bated"

Interestingly, "bated" is a modern spelling variation of "bate," and the phrase "with bated breath" has been standardized in contemporary usage. Despite some misconceptions, the phrase does not originate from the word "bait," which is a common mistake. Instead, it stems from the older usage of "bate" meaning to diminish or restrain.
