Structure and Design of the Questions

The questions in the novel are typically sequenced to mirror the progression of the story, starting with factual recall and gradually moving toward higher-order thinking tasks. They often include: - Literal Questions: Focused on specific facts or events (e.g., "What punishment does Alex receive after his prank?"). - Inferential Questions: Require readers to read between the lines (e.g., "What motivated Alex to return the stolen money?"). - Analytical Questions: Encourage evaluation of characters or themes (e.g., "How does Alex's attitude change throughout the story?"). - Personal Reflection: Invite readers to relate their experiences or opinions (e.g., "Have you ever faced a situation where you had to make a tough moral choice?").
